

Christmas Lunches

Fancy a relaxing afternoon away from the hustle and bustle of the town centre? Why not enjoy a delicious Christmas lunch in Edinburgh Zoo's Mansion House? The gorgeous oak panelled rooms will be traditionally decorated and have stockings above the fireplace. On arrival you will walk down the red carpet and be welcomed with Prosecco reception before enjoying your scrumptious three course lunch. This will be followed by tea, coffee and mini mince pies before spending the afternoon wandering around the Zoo at leisure.

Tables are available for parties of 2 to 10 at £23.50 per person and must be pre-booked.

Or, if the whole family is coming to visit why not host your own private Christmas lunch or dinner? For groups of 30+ you can have exclusive use of our deluxe MacMillan suite. Wonderfully light and airy the room is decorated in shades of Wedgwood blue and grey with intricate decorative plasterwork and breathtaking open views right across the zoo to the Pentland Hills. It even comes complete with its own chandelier and antique fireplace. Only £23.50 per person.
